

NZARES Contributed Papers 2014

 NZARES	Kotuku Room (upstairs)	Tui Room (upstairs)	Kauri Room (downstairs)
Thursday morning	Regional	Profitability	Trade
	Sandra Barns	Ron Pellow	Siriwardana Mahinda
11-11.30am	Lake Rotorua: Incentivising land use change	Dairy Farming - But Not As We Know It?	Australia's new Free Trade Agreements with Japan and South Korea: Potential Impacts on the Resources and Agricultural Sectors and their Environmental Implications
	Brian Bell	Stephanie McWhinnie	Meike Guenther
11.30-12.00	Replicating Horizons N leaching implementation solution	The Role of Fixed Costs and Non-discretionary Variables in Fisheries: A Theoretical and Empirical Investigation	Impacts of changes in China and India on New Zealand trade and the environment
	Peter Fraser	Hamish Clarke	Angie Fisher
12.00-12.30	The economics of the Ruataniwha Dam – is it the son of Clyde?	An evaluation of the viability of two 'AMS' farm systems in Central Canterbury.	Milk price volatility as a result of EU quota removal
Thursday afternoon	MPI Special Session Biosecurity	Choice Modelling	Regional
	Andre van Halderen	Sini Miller	Carla Muller & Matt Newman
1.30-2.00pm	Foot-and-mouth disease economic impact assessment (1)	Four well-being elements of Canterbury freshwater: a choice experiment to value environmental, social, financial and cultural attributes	The impact of reducing nitrogen leaching – An overview of the process and regulatory context in South Coastal Canterbury
	Rod Forbes	Tom Ndebele	Phil Journeaux
2.00-2.30	Foot-and-mouth disease economic impact assessment (2)	Environmental attitude and the demand for green electricity in New Zealand	Economic analysis of the impact on farming of limiting the discharge of nitrogen and phosphorus; A catchment case study: Aparima (Southland)
	Erwin Corong	Alexey Kravchenko	Hayley Vujcich
2.30-3.00	Foot-and-mouth disease economic impact assessment (3)	Introducing and contrasting "revealed" ANA data collection approach vs "stated" and "inferred" approaches for choice experiments for NZ water valuation in irrigated dairy farms.	Community values for water in the Wellington Region
	Mike Webb	Geoff Kerr	Femi Olubode-Awosola
3.00-3.30	Exporting with Compromised Biosecurity	What's your game? Heterogeneity amongst New Zealand hunters.	Improving water quality in Waikato region – Options for dry stock and dairy support farms

Each 30 minute slot will comprise of approx 20 minutes for the presentation followed by questions, allowing approx 3 minutes for people to move between rooms

NZARES Contributed Papers 2014

 NZARES	Kotuku Room (upstairs)	Tui Room (upstairs)	Kauri Room (downstairs)
Friday morning	Ecosystem Services	National Policy	Metrics
	Florian Eppink	Allan Rae	Stephen J Murray
9.30-10.00	A global meta-analysis of grassland value	What's wrong with being an agricultural economy?	Update on MPI's information development activities
	Richard Yao, Duncan Harrison & Juan Monge	Phil Journeaux	David Evison
10.00-10.30	Refining a spatial economic model for analysing ecosystem services in planted forests	Value of Irrigation to New Zealand	Use of internal rate of return as a tool for evaluating and comparing investment performance
Friday afternoon	Environmental Policy	Farm Management	International
	Kyleisha Foote	Peter Fraser	Daisuke Sawauchi
1.00-1.30	The true cost of milk: Environmental deterioration Vs. profit in the New Zealand dairy industry.	The intensification of the NZ Dairy Industry – Ferrari cows being run on two-stroke fuel on a road to nowhere?	Greenhouse Gas Emission Trends in the Japanese Food Manufacturing Sector
	Dan Marsh	Barrie Ridler	Chau Tran My Minh
1.30-2.00	Assessment of cap and trade systems for environmental regulation using experimental economics	Winning the Farm Environment versus Profit Conundrum	Credit Constraints and Impact on Farm Household Welfare: Evidence from Vietnam's North Central Coast region
	Simon Harris	Graeme Doole	Frank Scrimgeour
2.00-2.30	Technical input to collaborative decision making processes	Efficient environmental management of grazing systems	Does Corporate Governance Matter in China? A study of Shanghai Stock Exchange IPOs 1999-2009
	Ronlyn Duncan	Daniel Gregg	Will Wright
2.30-3.00	Dancing to whose tune?: Farmers' perspectives on agriculture's role in diminishing New Zealand's '100% Pure' brand	The value of environmental health in agricultural production across efficiency quantiles	Previous exposure to natural disasters and perceptions of vulnerability: Survey evidence from Fiji

Each 30 minute slot will comprise of approx 20 minutes for the presentation followed by questions, allowing approx 3 minutes for people to move between rooms